Murder in the First Degree, C.R.S. 18-3-102 Class 1 Felony
1st Degree Assault C.R.S 18-3-202 Class 3 Felony

I, Detective Ernest Sandoval 06154, the Affiant, state under oath that the facts known to the Affiant which establish probable cause to believe that a criminal offense was committed, and that the offense was committed by the above named person(s), are the following:

On August 6, 2021, at approximately 10:32 p.m., the Denver Police Department's Communication's Bureau received a 911 call stating that someone had just been shot at 22nd and Wazee.

Upon responding officers' arrival, they located a male suffering from a gunshot wound in the parking lot near Gate A. This male, [REDACTED], was suffering from a gunshot wound to the groin. Officer's also located another victim who was suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. This male was identified as [REDACTED].

At approximately 10:58 p.m., your Affiant received a phone call from Sergeant MURPHY to respond on the homicide. Your Affiant responded to Denver Police Headquarters to interview witnesses.

At approximately 12:16 a.m., your Affiant interviewed [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she works with Mr. [REDACTED] and that earlier in the day prior to fans entering the stadium, Mr. [REDACTED] was involved in a verbal altercation with two males. Ms. [REDACTED] said that one of the males was Rayvell Powell and the other male was Javon P. Ms. [REDACTED] said that the argument started possibly over Mr. [REDACTED] and Javon P talking to the same girl, [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] said that Mr. [REDACTED] left with the two males from concession stand 312 and that she did not know where they went but that Mr. [REDACTED] came back to get his backpack and attempted to leave. Ms. [REDACTED] convinced Mr. [REDACTED] to stay in the concession stand and work. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that a few minutes later the two males arrived at concession 312 and started talking to [REDACTED], another employee working concession 312. Mr. [REDACTED] heard the two males talking and said "They can't keep my name out of their mouth." Mr. [REDACTED] approached [REDACTED] and was arguing again. When the game had ended Mr. [REDACTED] was walking out with Ms. [REDACTED] to go home when Mr. [REDACTED] told Ms. [REDACTED] that he could not walk with her because he needed to handle some issues. Ms. [REDACTED] hugged Mr. [REDACTED] and a couple minutes later heard gunshots. Your Affiant showed a single photograph of Rayvell Powell to Ms. [REDACTED]. Your affiant showed the photograph to Ms. [REDACTED] and she was unable to identify the photograph as Rayvell Powell.

Your Affiant was able to retrieve surveillance video from Coors Field which captured the shooting. The victim is observed arguing with a black male in black clothing. A short time later a dark-skinned male wearing black pants and a light-colored hoodie appears and then fires a gun striking the victim. The victim runs down the stairs as the suspect continues to shoot at him. The victim drops a backpack and falls to the ground. While on the ground the suspect runs down the stairs and stands approximately 5 feet from the victim and fires four to five more shots at the victim.

Your Affiant provided Detective Johnson with a photograph of an individual with the name "Javon P." and requested Detective Johnson contact [REDACTED], the [REDACTED] for Aramark, the main company who contracts with the temporary employment, in an attempt to identify the individual, who was reported to be a temporary employee at Coors Field in concessions. Your Affiant learned the following from Detective Johnson:

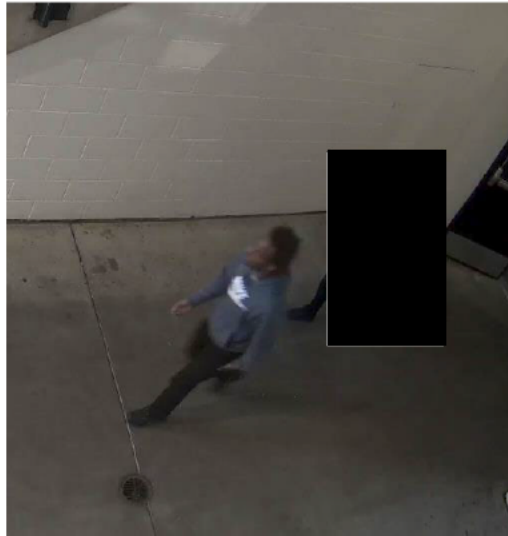

At 10:20 a.m. Detective Johnson met with Mr. [REDACTED], Aramark's [REDACTED], Aramark [REDACTED] and (via telephone) Aramark [REDACTED] and showed them the photograph, however none were personally familiar with the individual. Ms. [REDACTED] obtained check in/assignment logs, which are used to identify and check in contract workers for the companies Instaworks and Laborworks, which provide staffing for events for Aramark, and was able to identify an individual on the sheets by the name of "Javon Price". She related that he had worked section 127P the previous evening. She stated the logs were kept in order to reconcile check in's for workers to assist with tracking hours and paying them for their work. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she had contacted Instaworks earlier in the morning in an attempt to identify another individual associated with this case, Rayvelle Powell, however she had not heard back from them. She stated she would continue to attempt to contact them to also identify Javon Price.

At approximately 11:45 a.m. Detective Johnson spoke with [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] at Coors Field. She related that on August 6, 2021, while working to check in staff, she checked in an individual who provided the name "Javon Price" to her. The check in process consists of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] She described him as a black male wearing a green hoodie, black pants, and black shoes.

Later that evening, at what was determined to be 7:40 p.m. she related that the same individual came downstairs and complained of being ill and not feeling well. She related he was escorted to the room she was in to turn in his wrist band, and then was escorted out of the building by another employee. Ms. [REDACTED] was present in the video monitor room at Coors Field and identified video of the individual whose name she was told was Javon Price when he came downstairs to say he didn't feel well, when he entered her office to turn in his wristband and when he was being escorted from the building, accompanied by a female employee in a red shirt. In that video, the individual identified as Mr. Price was seen wearing what appeared to be a long sleeved hoodie underneath a light gray button up shirt, which Ms. [REDACTED] described as being issued to him when he checked in for work, black pants and black shoes. As Mr. Price was being escorted from the building, he was observed removing the light gray shirt and throwing it in a large bin in the hallway as he was leaving. Video from the camera labeled Stair 12 showed Mr. Price and the female employee in the red shirt exit an internal door into the stairwell area. The sweatshirt Mr. Price was wearing had the word “Nike” with its swish symbol in large white letters on the front of the hoodie. Mr. Price then exits the building via an external door to the parking lots.

At approximately 11:56 a.m. Detective Johnson received information from Ms. [REDACTED] about the check in/out times for three individuals on August 6, 2021: the victim, [REDACTED] (checked in at 2:36 p.m. – checked out at 10:19:42 p.m.), an involved individual, Rayvelle Powell (checked in at 3:12 p.m.) and Javon Price (checked in at 4:13 p.m.). However, there were no official check out times provided for Mr. Powell or Mr. Price. Rayvelle Powell was described by witnesses as having been wearing a black t-shirt, a black “do-rag” on his head, black jeans and black shoes. Detective Johnson was able to locate video from the camera labeled “Stair Exit 10”, which is the camera that covered the area where the contract parties would check in for their shifts. Detective Johnson located video of an individual matching Rayvelle Powell’s description checking in at approximately 3:12 p.m. wearing the described clothing:

Your Affiant was able to locate a Javon PRICE 11/17/1999 in law enforcement records who was involved in a traffic accident in Denver on July 17, 2021. Your Affiant was able to locate body worn camera footage from the incident and found the person in the video was the same person observed at Coors Field providing the name Javon PRICE 11/17/1999.

Video was also located and provided to Detective Johnson by Allied Security Officer [REDACTED] showing the same individual, identified by Ms. [REDACTED] as “Javon Price”, checking in at approximately 4:13 p.m. That image is much clearer than the earlier image of him being escorted from the building and clearly shows the large Nike/swoosh emblem on the front of his blue hoodie as well as a clearer image of his face:

In another video your Affiant was able to view what appears Rayvell POWELL handing the gun off to Javon PRICE, prior to Javon PRICE shooting the victim.

Your Affiant spoke with [REDACTED] from Instawork who was able to provide your Affiant with the contact information for Javon PRICE. The phone number provided was [REDACTED] with an address of 5959 N Dunkirk St #6202.

Based on this report Your Affiant respectfully requests an arrest warrant be issued for Javon Price 11/17/1999, for First Degree Murder as a Class 1 Felony and First Degree Assault as a Class 3 Felony, to further this investigation.

This warrant was approved by Denver District Attorney Tim Hoffman, Bar# 50401.
